COUNCILLOR RESIGNATION

Today, King Island Council regrettably received the resignation of Councillor Doug Collins. Doug will now be concentrating his time and energy on his family following the sale of his King Island properties.

The Tasmanian Electoral Commission have been notified of the casual vacancy and will carry out due process in accordance with the Local Government Act.

King Island Mayor Duncan McFie extended his heartfelt thanks to Doug on behalf of his Council colleagues, "I would like to wish Doug and Wendy all the very best for the future, I know the entire community will join me in thanking Doug for his generous contributions to King Island, particularly during his time as Councillor."
